Centered on Christ

As we transition back to "normalcy" in our own lives and at the church, we must ask what normal will look like in the future. For the church this might be questions like: What are the things that our church can focus on no matter what is going on around us? What role does our church have in this community? What people can we reach and minister to? I often tell people, if you are still alive on this earth, then God has something for you to do. The same is true of each church. We are here, and God has things for us to do.

So what sets a church apart from any other club or secular organization? We are founded upon and connected to Jesus. What makes a church different is that the heart of who we are and what we do is centered on Christ. The practices we do and the efforts we give as a church are to be focused on and strengthened by Christ.

I know that I don't have all the answers, but I look forward to working with each of you as we look to the future in hope. As we discover the plans God has for us, I am anticipating great ways that lives will be touched and strengthened now, and for eternity. With Christ as our center, we will always be heading in the right direction.

Pastor Ian
